
The China Balance Sheet Project Advisory Committee

We have been fortunate to be able to draw on the extensive knowledge of a remarkable group of experts on China and US-China relations, representing a range of perspectives. Many of these advisers participated in brainstorming meetings or provided comments on draft versions of this volume, and we are deeply grateful for their guidance and support. However, the findings and opinions expressed in this book solely reflect those of the authors. They do not necessarily represent the views of our advisers or other supporters.
